

I strongly support arrl's petition RM-10352 which recommends only narrowband modes below 1840 in the 160 amateur band. The petition is reasonable, supported by many amateur operators, and is in concert with the most recent ARRL and IARU bandplans by 160 m amateurs. As a long time 160 m operator, I would welcome a positive decision on this matter